

Designer Flowers have been designing flowers for parties, events and weddings for over two decades and is now celebrating its 25th anniversary in Bespoke floral design.

We hope in this brochure we have been able to reflect the atmosphere and mood of our designs in their formal party backdrop along with some of the venues where designer flowers work.

At Designer Flowers, we offer a personal consultation service, where we pride ourselves on our level of service and commitment to both corporate clients and venues.

The team at Designer Flowers would be delighted to help you plan the design, style and concept for your party, event or wedding. We will also provide you with a complimentary quotation with photographs.

We have created a gallery of information on our new website, enabling you to experience the range of floral designs that we are able to offer you.

At Designer Flowers we understand that your flowers, are an extremely important part of your wedding day and that is why we offer a bespoke and creative floral design service along with a complimentary bridal design consultation.
