Designer Flowers have been providing flowers for parties, Events and weddings, for over two decades; and are now Celebrating their 21st anniversary in floral design by Introducing, their Brand New, LED lighting Range and Lit Prop's.

We hope in this brochure we have been able to reflect The atmosphere and mood of our floral designs, in their Formal party backdrop and in some of the venues where Designer flowers are proud to be a part of. At Designer Flowers, we offer a personal consultation Service, where we pride ourselves, of our level of service and commitment to both corporate clients and our venues.

Our team at Designer Flowers would be delighted to help you plan the design, style and concept for your party, event or wedding flowers and of course our LED lighting and Lit Prop's.

We will also provide you with a complimentary quotation with photographs. We have created a gallery of information on our new website, enabling you to experience the range of floral designs and LED lighting and Lit Prop's, that we are able to offer you. Designer Flowers are based in North West London and we also have, a flower shop, situated, within, the London Hilton Hotel on Park Lane, where a separate bespoke brochure of our designs, within the London Hilton, is available, upon request.
